UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
OAKLAND DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,
v.

JIANNA COPPEDGE,

Defendant.

NO. 4:23-MJ-70426-MAG

SECOND AMENDED STIPULATION
TO CONTINUE PRELIMINARY
HEARING AND EXCLUDE TIME
FROM AUGUST 25, 2023 TO
OCTOBER 4, 2023 AND ~~[PROPOSED]~~
ORDER

The above-captioned case is currently scheduled for a preliminary hearing/arraignment on August 25, 2023, at 10:30 am. The government has provided defense counsel with discovery. The government will also be providing defense counsel with additional discovery materials. Accordingly, the parties would like to continue the hearing to October 4, 2023, to allow additional time for the parties to engage in discussions about potential resolution prior to Indictment, and for defense to review discovery. Furthermore, the government has additional discovery to produce to defense counsel, as the discovery in this case is voluminous. Believing such discussions to be in the interests of justice, the parties represent that good cause exists and therefore agree to extend the

1 deadlines for a preliminary hearing under Rule 5.1(d) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure
2 and exclude time under the “Speedy Indictment” provisions of the Speedy Trial Act. See 18 U.S.C.
3 § 3161(b). Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate and agree to a new hearing date on October 4,
4 2023, for preliminary hearing or arraignment. The parties also stipulate and agree to request that the
5 time between August 25, 2023, and October 4, 2023, be excluded to facilitate discussions related
6 to resolution prior to Indictment, and for effective preparation pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7).

~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER

The above-entitled matter is currently scheduled for preliminary hearing/arraignment on August 25, 2023, at 10:30 am. The parties are requesting a continuance to October 4, 2023. The parties are seeking this continuance in order to engage in discussions about potential resolution of this matter prior to Indictment, and for defense counsel to review discovery that has been produced. Furthermore, the government will produce additional discovery in this matter. Defense counsel will need additional time to review the additional discovery. With the consent of the United States, and taking into account the public interest in the prompt disposition of criminal cases, the court sets the preliminary hearing to the date set forth below, and based on parties' showing of good cause, finds good cause for extending the time limits for a preliminary hearing under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 5.1 and for extending the 30-day time period for an indictment under the Speedy Trial Act (based on the exclusions set forth above). See Fed. R. Crim. P. 5.1; 18 U.S.C. § 3161(b).

The parties have agreed to waive and exclude time for the preliminary hearing under the Speedy Trial Act. The government has no objection to this proposed continuance. Therefore, for good cause shown the hearing currently scheduled on August 25, 2023, shall be vacated. The matter shall be continued until October 4, 2023. The time shall be excluded from the running of the speedy trial clock for effective preparation of counsel under 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7).

IT IS SO ORDERED.
